Only 15,000 Persons Left.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., 6.—Supt. Morgan, of the Cambria Iron Company, regarded as an exceptionally level headed man, returned today from a tour of the entire flooded district. He declared that only about 15,000 persons are now alive, where 29,000 lived and had their being before the flood.

The enormity of the disaster becoming more apparent—Loss 12,000 to 15,000

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., 6.—The enormity of the devastation wrought by the flood is becoming more and more apparent with every effort of the laborers to resolve order out of chaos. Over one hundred men have been engaged all day in an effort to clear a narrow passage from the death bridge upwards through the sea of debris that blocks in Conemaugh for nearly half a mile. An eye witness of the horrible scenes in and about Stonebridge during Friday night and Saturday states that nothing in art or literature can half delineate the horrors of the night after the ruins had taken fire. The best estimate on the loss of life, based on the registry of the living and the unofficial toll, put it at from 12,000 to 15,000. The drift of opinion among intelligent men is that from 1,000 to 1,500 of the bodies will never be heard of.

Prince and Princess of Wales in Paris.

PARIS, 11.—Among the visitors to the exposition today were the Prince and Princess of Wales, who also ascended the Eiffel tower.

Tasquett in China.

SAN FRANCISCO, 5.—William B. Tasquett, the murderer of Amos J. Snell, the Chicago millionaire, is in China. Mrs. Myron Gantz, Tasquett's cousin, came here from Chicago two months ago. She was much given to drinking and frequenting certain places, and upon one of these occasions told a story to a reporter that Tasquett escaped via British Columbia, taking one of the China steamers from Vancouver.

Indians on the War Path.

HELENA, Mont., 8.—A party of A. S. Indians are reported to be on their way from across the border to make a horse raid on the Crows. Lieut. Thuston of the Eighth Cavalry, with a detachment of twenty men and four Indian scouts, left Fort Keogh Wednesday night for the north side of Yellowstone river to work over toward Fort Assinaboine the marauders.

The Seattle Fire.

SEATTLE, 8.—The estimated loss by fire of buildings alone is $10,000,000, and all personal losses will probably swell the total to $20,000,000. It is thought that many persons must have perished in the flames. Giant powder was used to blow up buildings in the hope of staying the progress of the fire, but with no effect. It is reported that two men were lynched for stealing. The fire spread north and south from where it started, covering a distance of one mile.

Laid in Ruins.

SEATTLE, W. T., 7.—Seattle is in ruins. Every bank, hotel and places of amusement, all the leading business houses, all the newspaper offices, railroad depots, mills, steamboat wharves, coal bunkers, freight warehouses and telegraph offices were burned. The fire began near the corner of Fort and Pearl streets and before midnight had consumed the whole business section of the city northward to the Stearns post mill, along Front and Second streets to the water front, involving a loss of over $5,000,000. The city is literally wiped out, except the residence portion on high ground. At 6:30 o'clock the roaring flames had reached the wharves and steamboats and shipping were compelled to head out into the stream. A stiff breeze was blowing from the northwest when the fire began, and it soon got the best of the fire department. The water supply gave out within two hours after the fire began and the flames had a clear sweep. Word was telegraphed Tacoma and a train started with a fire apparatus at 4:35 p. m., reaching Seattle in sixty-three minutes. The ocean steamers Mexico for San Francisco and Ancon for Alaska, escaped destruction by pulling out into the harbor. Thirty-one business blocks in the heart of the city were burned up to midnight.

FORBIGN.

The Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, 10.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Cologne Gazette asserts that the Czar personally and with much warmth told the Shah of Persia that if, while in England, he should make to Great Britain any concession not favorable to Russia, 100,000 Russian soldiers now on the Prussian frontier would be ordered to cross the border.

Mr. Gladstone at Dartmouth.

LONDON, 10.—Mr. Gladstone's yacht arrived in Dartmouth Saturday afternoon. The liberal leader spent Whit-Monday at Dartmouth making visits on shore, but sleeping on board. Today (Monday) he will proceed by rail to Torquay, where he will be received and entertained at luncheon before addressing a great meeting.

Sir Charles Tupper.

LONDON, 6.—Sir Charles Tupper was presented at a levee to the Prince of Wales by the Marquis of Salisbury on his creation as a Baronet. The Prince also met at the levee, United States Minister, Hon. Dr. Trutch, who was presented by the colonial secretary on his creation as a Knight.

The Shah of Persia.

BERLIN, 10.—The Shah of Persia with his suite arrived here from St. Petersburg Sunday. He was welcomed by Emperor William and several Royal Princes, Count Herbert Bismarck and a crowd of civil and military officials. Several Royal salutes were fired.

Gladstone in Southampton.

LONDON, 6.—Mr. Gladstone has gone to Southampton, where he will open a western stamping tour. Replying to an address presented to him he said the liberals had good cause to congratulate themselves upon the recent events. He declared that in the next general election he gave results proportionate to those given at the bye-elections, the home rule party would gain a hundred seats.

Rebellion in Tangiers.

PARIS, 3.—Despatches from Tangiers state that several of the most powerful of the native tribes have rebelled against the authority of the Sultan and attacked his troops. In the engagements which have taken place a number of the Sultan's officers have been taken prisoners by the natives, who have sent messages to the Sultan intimating their intention to kill them.

Blaine's Bluff.

LONDON, 8.—St. James Gazette today prints a leading editorial on the subject of the Behring Sea controversy, which it heads "Diplomatic Draw Poker." The article declares that the key to Mr. Blaine's propounded claims in Behring Sea is his belief that a first class controversy with England is necessary to mark him—a diplomat of former rank. Mr. Blaine knows that a bit of a bluff will sometimes prevent a call from any but the strongest hands. The article concludes that the United States Government has set up a facetious claim in Behring Sea, solely with a view to offset the Canadian claims in the fishery dispute.

Behring Sea Difficulty.

LONDON, 6.—It is stated in diplomatic circles that the Foreign Office is exchanging notes at a rapid rate with the American Minister here on the subject of the Behring sealers, and that the question of the rights of Canadian sealers in the waters adjacent to Alaska is causing considerable diplomatic activity. Both Governments are anxious to reach some settlement of the vexed question before the 1st of July, as otherwise it is certain that further complications of an unpleasant nature would arise. If the sealers which usually sail for the north in July are permitted to leave without a definite understanding of their rights and the American war ships which have been ordered to the Alaskan waters sail with no modification of instructions so far given them, it is feared that trouble must result.

The Secret Service.

LONDON, 7.—In the Commons on the vote for secret service, Mr. Bradlaugh moved to reduce the amount from £28,000, asked by the Government, to $3,000. This fund, he said, was an open door for the misuse of public funds. He instanced Lecon, who for years received pay from secret service fund through a person who was not himself personally responsible to the ministers. The money which might be expended secretly always encouraged concentration of conspiracies and would always do so. All public expenditures ought to be subject to audit. Mr. Baggart advised the Government to seriously consider whether they ever really got any value for money expended secretly. What had they got from Lecon for the large sums paid him for years? Simply a lot of flimsy gossip. Secretary Matthews said that the disposition of secret service fund was a very disagreeable duty. Still it was a duty imposed on the ministers, and so long as the system existed they could not consent to give the open audit of the expenditures from this fund. After considerable debate the motion for reduction of the vote was rejected by 141 to 43.

GENERAL.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Another of the brotherhood has succumbed to the charms of the gentler sex and joined the ranks of the bachelors. Mr. Wm. J. Riley, partner in the saddlery business of Hutchings & Riley, was married at Rat Portage on the 3rd of June, to Miss Jane Martin, of Winnipeg. The happy couple arrived in Calgary, where they will make their home, by No. one express, this morning. Mr. Riley has been a respected resident of Calgary for several years. The friends wish him and his bride a long and happy wedded life.

School Trustee Meeting.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

At an adjourned meeting of the Calgary Protestant school board, held at the Royal Hotel yesterday afternoon, the following resolution was carried: "Resolved that all arrears of taxes now due to the Calgary schools, under section 28 of the School Ordinance, be collected without further delay, and that the duty of collecting the same in conformity with the ordinance, is assigned to the secretary treasurer, and that he is hereby authorized to employ what assistance may be necessary in preparing the list of lands to be sold for taxes. The treasurer to receive whatever legal information may be necessary for this purpose from Messrs. Smith & West, barristers, of Calgary.

President Van Horne and Party.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

At 8:30 this morning President Van Horne's train called a halt at Calgary. There were in the party, in addition to the President, Mr. Thomas Skinner, of London, England, the new director of the C. P. R.; Mr. Lowrey, one of the directors of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie Railway, and three ladies of Mr. Lowrey's family; Mr. Langdon, formerly of Langdon & Sheperd, C. P. R. contractors, and now a director of the above road; Mr. Smith, manager of the Allan steamship line, Montreal; Mr. Peterson, head engineer of the U. P. R., Montreal; General Superintendent Whyte and Supt. Niblock. The party were presented with a splendid lot of garden stuff for table use on their trip. They were also waited on by the Mayor, Councillors Orr, Grant, etc. The whole party took a stroll for 45 minutes through town. Mr. Van Horne stated that the matter of making Calgary the seat of workshops was under consideration. The strangers of the party were much pleased with the samples of Alberta grain shown them in the HERALD office.

A New Industry.

(From Friday's Daily.)

The Calgary Steam Laundry commenced operations today and bids fair to distance John Chinaman. We were shown through the whole establishment yesterday by the obliging proprietors, Messrs. Brown & Birss, who put the machinery in operation and explained how the different parts of the work is done. The building which was erected for the laundry is just now completed and is a very substantial wooden building on a stone foundation, on Egan Avenue east. The main building is 28x40 with a porch and a shed for delivery wagon at the rear. A well has been sunk seventeen feet deep to the level of the Bow river at lowest water. From this well the water is pumped by steam to a settling tank on the second floor, which holds 800 gallons, from which it is conveyed by pipes to wherever wanted.

The work is chiefly done by an upright air horse power engine and ten horse power boiler, built by Doty & Son, Toronto. The wash tubs, of which there are two, are in the form of a cylinder placed in horizontal position. They are inclosed in water tight shells. Each tub is large enough to wash from four to six dozen pieces at a time, according to the size of the garments. Cold water is first run in on the soiled linen till it is soaked, then the water is gradually heated by allowing steam to go through a pipe which passes through the tub, gradually bringing the water to boiling heat. Gearing is attached to the tub that is made to revolve very rapidly, first in one direction and then it adjusts itself to a reverse motion, so that the clothes cannot become tangled but are kept loose while the hot water passes through them and as it becomes dirty, goes out through thousands of perforations into the outer shell and is carried off by pipes. This process occupies from fifteen to thirty minutes, according to the condition of the garments. There is no rubbing to wear the goods in washing. Both of the tubs are similar in their construction. One will be used for such articles as require boiling, and the other for a like warm water process for wool goods.

When the washing is done, the clothes are taken out by hand and placed in what is termed a Hydro Extractor, which is a new and ingenious invention. It consists of an inner and outer cylinder which revolves round an upright shaft, the inside cylinder or tub is made of zinc and is full of small holes, while the outside is a close metal case. The wet clothes are placed in the inner tub, which, when a belt from the engine is attached, starts off at the rate of 700 revolutions per minute, causing such a draft of air to pass through the holes that all the water is driven out of the linen into the outer shell. This takes about twenty minutes to accomplish. The clothes are then taken out to the final drying room, where they are placed on neatly constructed wooden racks, in an air and dust proof compartment, which is heated by 300 feet of coil pipes supplied with heat by the exhaust steam of the engine, after being thoroughly dried, which takes but a few minutes. The articles requiring starching are then passed into the ironing room, where there are tables, stoves, spring ironers, etc., etc. The spring ironers are so constructed that there is a constant pressure of forty pounds on the irons, so there is no labor required but to direct the movement of the smoothing irons by a touch of the hand.

In another room there are placed a set of five rollers for smoothing sheets, blankets etc. The rollers are made of iron and nicely covered with a material resembling cotton flannel. The rollers are long enough to take in the whole size of any bed cover. They revolve around a large hollow steel cylinder heated by steam, against which the goods are constantly pressed by the surrounding rollers, from which the articles will come ready for use. In the building there is office, store room, packing room, in fact the whole affair seems to be constructed with a view to good work and in the most expeditious and convenient manner possible. The laundry machiney proper was manufactured at Troy, N. Y., there being none such made in Canada. The total cost of the establishment is in round numbers $4,000.

TERRITORIAL.

Medicine Hat Steps to the Front.

This week has been marked by events of more than ordinary interest in our sister city. Three important affairs have transpired there which places her citizens in an enviable position both as to enterprise and public spirit and will be a lasting credit and benefit to the town. At six o'clock on Tuesday evening the foundation stone of an hospital was laid with full Masonic honors by superintendent Niblock of the C. P. R. Addresses were delivered on the occasion by N. F. Davin, M. P., of Regina, by the resident ministers of the Episcopal Presbyterian and Methodist Churches, Thomas Tweed, M. L. A., Amos Rowe and George Murdoch, Esquires, of Calgary. The hospital building will be of solid stone and will cost $6,000. $3,000 was granted by the Government in aid of the building fund and three thousand more has been raised by subscription, leaving only one thousand to be provided for. For a town of 800 inhabitants this is a showing worthy of being followed by larger towns in the west.

The second even of the week was the dedication on the same evening at eight o'clock of the new Masonic Hall. This ceremony was performed by District Deputy Grand Master Amos Rowe, of Calgary, assisted by the Grand Junior Warden of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba and other masons. The ceremony of opening lodge was gone through in the old lodge room from which place the brethren marched to the new lodge, when the interesting ceremony of opening the new hall was gone through according to the prescribed rules, and the hall was declared duly dedicated.

On Wednesday evening the work of organizing and the installation of a new lodge of the Independent Order of Odd-fellows to be known as No. 4 was performed by D.D. Grand Sire Murdoch, of Calgary, the particulars of which we have to hold over for tomorrow.

Last Night's Meeting.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

A public meeting was held in the Council Chamber last night as announced by the Mayor in yesterday's HERALD. The object of the meeting was to bring as many of our visitors as possible together to meet the joint reception committee for the purpose of arranging to take as many of the excursionists into the country as may desire to go, for the purpose of seeing the growing crops and interviewing the farmers at their homes on the character and suitability of the country for farming purposes. The Council Chamber was well filled with visitors and citizens. His Worship Mayor Marsh presided, and Councillor Fitzgerald acted as secretary. After His Worship had explained the object of the meeting, Amos Rowe, president of the Agricultural Society, was called on to speak. Mr. Rowe explained at some length the circumstances which had led up to the present situation of matters, and welcomed our visitors. He stated that arrangements had been made to send all those who might desire to go into the country free of expense and that the committee had also made arrangements for the use of the Opera House and that a meeting to which the visitors were invited, would be held in the Opera House at 8:30 p. m. He mentioned that several had gone out for short drives this evening. That Mr. Hodder and other gentlemen had taken parties out in their carriages and consequently were not present to-night.

The Rev. Leo Gaeiz, of Red Deer, was then called on and addressed the meeting in his usual forcible, instructive and amusing manner. He said he wished to correct a mistake which might have crept into the minds of some namely, that parties wishing to visit Red Deer could do so without cost. He was not in a position to warrant that, on account of the long distance and expense, but at the same time he was willing and believed he could make arrangements for any one wishing to go there, to reduce the usual cost very materially. He said I am charged by some with being a "Red Deer Crank," but if I am, I am also a Calgary man. Our interests are identical. What benefits Calgary, must benefit Red Deer, and vice versa. We are all here to build up Alberta. I am tired of sectionalism. If High river, Pine creek or Sheep creek flourishes, the rest of the country must benefit. If we were to indulge in maligning one part of the country, each one denouncing every place, but the one in which he himself resided. Then would be true in our case the saying of the Psalmist "All men are liars." Gentlemen of Ontario give us one-quarter of the time you have been in making your province the "princess amongst the provinces" and we will completely distance you. I have lived in every province of eastern Canada, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, Quebec and Grand Ontario, and I am prepared to say that if I like Nebucadnezer had to go to grass I would take my chances in Alberta. If any one expects to always get just the kind of weather he wants at a certain time no matter where he lives, he must be disappointed. You gentlemen have better sense. Sometimes it rains when we would like to see snow and sometimes it snows when we would like to see rain, but take it all in all I think we have the finest climate in the Dominion. If I did not like to stay in the country no power could make me stay. I am here because I believe from a practical trial, in the future of this great country. I do not want to see any one living in the country that is not satisfied with it. But give it a fair trial, gentlemen, and I am prepared to risk that you will be satisfied.

Councillor Fitzgerald then made the announcement that a paper was on the table for all those who wished to take a drive south in the morning to place their names so that it would be known how many teams the committee would need to provide. Mr. Maw called on all who desired to go north to hand in their names. While Mr. Rowe had a list for those wishing to go in any other direction.

Mr. Rowe here stated that he wished our visitors to understand that the teams are absolutely free, but suggested that as the drive might be a long one and they might not strike noon and a farm house at the same time, it would be best to take some lunch along as he (the speaker) and townspeople going with them intended to do. After those who wanted to go out to the country had put down their names, the mayor asked those present who wished to go on the proposed excursion to Banff on Thursday to signify it. Mr. J. D. Moulton explained the arrangements for going to Banff, but not very many seemed disposed to decide about going so far ahead.

The Mayor again assured the people that there would be teams provided for 50 to 100 persons and no charge, so that all were welcomed to go out in the morning, and that the teams would be ready at from seven to eight o'clock at the station grounds.

Mr. Gaeiz gave another address, which we regret we have not space for.

It was then moved by Mr. Rowe, seconded by Major Walker, that this meeting adjourn, to meet at the Opera House at 8:30 on Tuesday evening. The meeting then adjourned.

A New Invention.
[From Friday's Daily.]

A novel and useful invention has just been brought to completion in Calgary by Mr. A. J. Smith. It is a pile driver on a small scale, but differs some from its big brother in several particulars. This post driver seems destined to reduce the labor of fence building very much, as one of the hardest jobs that our new settlers have had to contend with in the past, was digging post holes. The new driver is light and is rigged up on an ordinary wagon and is driven by horse power. As soon as one post is driven down it is instantly moved on and another post driven, and so on. The first of these machines is being shipped today to one of Sir John L. Kaye's farms. We are informed that Sir John has ordered ten of them, being one for each of his ten big farms.

A Letter From Mayor Marsh.
[From Wednesday's Daily.]

To the Citizens of Calgary and outlying districts:

It is, perhaps, pretty generally known that a farmers excursion left Ontario yesterday for Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, and it will be a becoming act of courtesy on our part, as well as a duty to the district of Alberta, that we extend to them on their arrival, a cordial welcome and reasonable attention. The time of the year when all nature is looking at its best is particularly apropos for the arrival of those who may choose to make their home among us, if we can show them that their interests lie in this direction, and it should be the duty of all of us to interest ourselves in this movement, and contribute liberally and gracefully to the end that a satisfactory result may be attained and that all who in this way may visit us have the opportunity of at least seeing and judging for themselves the possibilities, as well as the probabilities of this western district. A grant from the municipality and from the agricultural society, will be made, but it is considered that these alone will be insufficient to meet the demands to accomplish the work as it should be done, and, therefore, a committee room has been opened at the office of Mr. Fitzgerald where a subscription list will be placed for signatures of those who will kindly contribute.

Again the question of teams is a very important one, and we would urge that such persons as can furnish a team for one day or more would leave their names at the same committee rooms, stating the capacity and the length of time such team or teams can be placed at the disposal of the committee. Information from farmers and ranchmen is also respectfully requested as to the best and most feasible routes for the excursionists to take to obtain the best results in the shortest time in the immediate vicinity.

Should there from any cause be a surplus of funds remaining over, the grant from the agricultural society will first be returned, any remaining balance will be distributed pro rata to the municipality and the donors after the close of the excursion. A full report of the municipal finances has been lately laid before you through the press reports of the town council, and it is not within reason to ask or expect a larger grant. The full necessities of the case can therefore only be reached in the manner herein indicated.

The time for action is short, the need is urgent and worthy, and surely you can have confidence that the appointed committee will energetically and judiciously perform their duty. The matter now having been placed clearly before you, it rests in a great measure with you, whether by apathy you will allow the opportunity to go by default, or whether by liberal subscriptions of money and teams you will make the scheme a profitable and successful one to the municipality and the surrounding district.

Your obedient servant,
D. W. MARSH.
Mayor.

[From Wednesday's Daily.]

Another distinguished party visited Calgary this morning. They were H. Villard, ex-president and now managing director of the Northern Pacific Railway, also Messrs. Charles C. Beaman and William Solomon, directors of the road, all of New York city. The early hour at which the party arrived by special train and the fact that the people of Calgary were not aware of their coming, prevented any considerable number of our representative men meeting them. It was 7:45 a. m. when their train steamed over the Elbow bridge. On arriving at the station the party at once took a stroll through the streets of our town for fifty minutes and returned to their car, where they were interviewed by G. C. Marsh, real estate dealer and agent of the Northern Pacific in Calgary, and W. F. Orr of the HERALD. Mr. Villard and party were both communicative and inquisitive and very courteous. He said they were on a tour of enquiry into the character and resources of the country and wanted to know from their agent, Mr. Marsh, if Calgary would not make a second Denver, to which Mr. Marsh replied "yes," with an infinitely better farming country around it to feed the city from.

Black Diamonds.

[From Thursday's Daily.]

Glorious news for Alberta! Yesterday a thorough test was made of the Anthracite coal from the new mines recently opened up by Mr. Brinkerhoff, at Canmore. We have had occasion before to refer to the indomitable energy and perseverance of Mr. Brinkerhoff in connection with this mine and now we have to record a test of the coal, which puts all doubts as to its quality beyond consideration. Yesterday the R. Engine 47 attached to a full loaded train of 20 cars, was run from Canmore to Glendon by Mr. Rundle with this coal as an experiment. Mr. Cardell, Locomotive Superintendent at Canmore and Mr. Brinkerhoff were on board. The engine driver Rundle gave her full fire in order to try the effect of the coal on the grates. The test proved most satisfactory, the superintendent and driver both pronouncing it the best locomotive coal they had ever used. In using Pennsylvania anthracite it is generally found to contain injurious chemical properties, which causes the grate to expand and almost close up the air passages unless water is used, which is attended with inconvenience and deteriorates the iron. This coal does not act in that way, but leaves the lungs of the engine so to speak perfectly free. The extent of the new anthracite mines has been referred to before in our columns as well as its general purity and freedom from rock or slate. As to the supply it is we believe practically unlimited. The vein is of great thickness, easily reached and worked, being only about a mile from the main line of the C. P. R. It is a well established fact that the coal of Pennsylvania has produced more wealth many times over than the gold of California. Alberta has an equal wealth of coal with other infinitely greater natural resources, and a better climate than Pennsylvania.

The Diamonds Again.

[From Saturday's Herald.]

Another most satisfactory test of the coal from the new Anthracite mine at Canmore, was made last night in the "We sma hours a yont the twal." The C. P. R. have, it is well known, been spending lots of money and taking much trouble to solve the question as to where and how they can obtain a supply of the best coal which the country will afford for the use of their engines on the prairie and mountain districts of the road. Last year they went to great expense in procuring a large diamond drill. They employed Mr. Maltby, a gentleman of great experience from Chicago, who with a staff of men spent the summer in making tests of the coal beds along the line for some miles east of Calgary, with fair results it is true, but just before going to the expense of opening shafts. The old war horse steps into the gap and offers a solution of the coal question, consequently the tests we have before referred to and the one we here refer to have been made. The express train No. 2 from the Coast, coaled up at Canmore last night for their eastward trip with Mr. Brinkerhoff's latest output. Engineer Walker was in charge of the locomotive, who reports that the test proved most satisfactory. In the short distance of 70 miles between Canmore and Calgary it was difficult to determine the exact saving made, but the percentage as compared with any other coal was large. One of the grandest features in connection with this coal, which will make it prized by railway men everywhere, is that it throws no sparks. We have just learned in addition to what we said yesterday about the test made on the freight train the day before, that the engineer made a run with a heavy train, of 122 miles without having to dump grates. It leaves absolutely no clinker.

[From Friday's Daily.]

The Calgary Steam Laundry commenced operations today and bids fair to distance John Chasman. We were shown through the whole establishment yesterday by the obliging proprietors, Messrs. Brown & Birse, who put the machinery in operation and explained how the different parts of the work is done. The building which was erected for the laundry is just now completed and is a very substantial wooden building on a stone foundation, on Egan Avenue east. The main building is 28x40 with a porch and a shed for delivery wagon at the rear. A well has been sunk seventeen feet deep to the level of the Bow river at lowest water. From this well the water is pumped by steam to a settling tank on the second floor, which holds 800 gallons, from which it is conveyed by pipes to wherever wanted. The work is chiefly done by an upright

Reply by Mr. Dewdney to the Address

Presented by the Indian Agents.

[From Thursday's Daily.]

OTTAWA, May 30, 1888.

MY DEAR BEGS:

It is with no little pleasure that I acknowledge the receipt of an address, dated June 30th, 1888, from the agents and employees on the various reserves in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories; which reached me but a short time ago. It having been sent from agency to agency for signatures.

You refer in the address to a rumor current regarding the severance of my connection with the department, which you are kind enough to say would be deplored by you, and to your certain knowledge by the Indians generally.

You are also good enough to refer to the assistance given you by myself in matters appertaining to the management of the Indians; and to say that in after years it will be a pleasant recollection to know that our combined efforts to elevate and improve the condition of the Indians, have not been without their results.

While not now your immediate superior officer, I am proud to be still in the service of the country, and especially in that of the Indian Department, with which I have, for a good many years, been connected; and the address which you have presented to me will always be a source of pleasant recollection of the years when we were joint workers for the welfare of the Indian tribes in the Northwest. It will also remind me of the strong support and active co-operation in the work which I received at the hands of the agents and employees, at all times and under all circumstances.

Be good enough to accept for yourself and to extend my sincere thanks to all the employees under you who were kind enough to share in the address.

Again thanking you for the honor conferred.

I am
yours sincerely,
E. DEWDNEY.

the mountain and Coast towns, and return to Calgary for a short stay, to investigate the situation more fully. What ever town is fortunate enough to secure Mr. Wilson as a business man, will be in luck. From our acquaintance of 29 years, we know him to be a thorough and able business man.

Calgary's "first elopement case" came off this morning. Miss —, a well known young lady, went on a trip west. A gentleman as well known as Donald, was numerous seen in company with the young lady. It is reported that they intended getting married at Banff, while No. one express would be at the station. Of course there will be a reconciliation and all will be right in the sweet bye and bye.

Mr. R. T. Wilson, who for many years carried on an extensive axe factory and various other kinds of business at Dundas, Ont., has sold out his business in that town and is on the look out for a new field for business. He has been visiting the whole northwest, from Manitoba to Calgary. Having visited the principal ranches and farms south of his town. He arrived in town last night and gave us a call. He will visit Banff, Thursday.

Mr. Wm. Hiddell of Moosejaw, one of the foremost ranchers of that district, gave us a call this morning.

Old Mrs. Hamer called at our office this morning to say that a prominent business man of this city is about to take a partner. She also says that the partnership is for life and that the partner will be one of the gentlemen who she further states is a "N. E. F." of doubtful character.

We call attention again to the splendid lot of cows and young cattle which will be offered for sale at McNaughton's live stock stable on the 12th inst. The cattle are from the well settled and high bred stock of Mr. Haddrell, and are at present on his farm on the Elbow river, which formerly belonged to the Rev. E. Paske Smith. For particulars see advertisement in the daily or weekly HERALD.

Mr. John Lafferty, of Calgary, who has a farm at the mouth of Sheep Creek about 25 miles out of town, brought in and sold one cow under this morning's banner of young wheat from his farm, which any part of Canada might well be proud of. The plant measures 24 inches and is a bright, healthy stalk. It is the variety known as "Champion Wheat." This is a third year Mr. Lafferty has sown this wheat, and each year it has been a success. Last year he sowed nine tenths of an acre and reaped 45 bushels of grain. Mr. Lafferty has had a sample of this year's crop with us, which we will be pleased to show to visitors who want to know if we can raise wheat about Calgary. We will add that several samples of first class wheat, barley and oats can be produced which have been grown in all directions around Calgary, where American cannot beat.

Friday.

Mr. Gouin, Crown Timber Agent, is confined to his room with rheumatism.

Mr. Swift of Swift Brothers, returned from Qu'Appelle by this morning's express.

Dr. Lauder returned from Regina today, where he had been disposing of some horses.

Mr. W. R. Hull returned to Calgary this morning after an absence of six weeks at Ottawa.

There has been a perfect boom of freight business at the C.P.R. station for the last few days.

The Rev. H. B. Collier will hold divine service at Mr. Dennison's house north of Bow River on Sunday next, June 9th.

Mr. George Murdoch returned from Medicine Hat this morning, where he had been organizing a new lodge of the I. O. O. F.

The Ice Cream Social in the Baptist meeting house last night was well attended and was a fair success. On account of the coolness of the evening the nice cake provided by the ladies was in better demand than the ice cream.

Another old building is being taken down from its moorings on Stephen Avenue today by Mr. George Leeson, who sold the lot upon which it stands as noted in the HERALD, to Mr. T. O. Critchley. Mr. Critchley, we are informed, is going to proceed at once with the erection of a fine stone building, where the old wooden shack stood. In the new building will be an opera house, club rooms, etc., of which we will give more particulars shortly.

The proprietors of the new Steam Laundry are now advised to consider the proposal of putting in a bath room, smoking room and reading room in connection with their business. The baths could be tempered to any degree of heat required without any additional cost by the use of their steam pipes. With such a grand combination of conveniences a gentleman could walk into the establishment enter their dressing room, doff his dusty linen, which would be at once put in the steam wash tub, he at the same time plunging into the bath. When he emerged from the bath he could put on a dressing gown read the latest telegrams in the HERALD, scan the price list, and discuss a Havana, during which time his linen would be dried and laundered, his boots blacked, and with the aid of a tonsorial artist he would come out a new man, fit to take his best girl to Eli Perkins' lecture or go with his wife to buy a fine milk cow at Holder's sale.

We expect to see the largest number of Christians present on this occasion, that have ever been assembled in Calgary at one time.

The very cool weather of the last two days has caused a good deal of anxiety in the minds of many that it might end in frost and that we might suffer to some extent as our friends in the East have done. But on close enquiry from early risers, this morning, we learn that there was no frost last night, and with a decidedly favorable change in the air we believe the threatened danger has passed over.

Monday.

A Lucas of the Calgary Water Works Co. went to Banff on Sunday morning's express train.

About fifteen of the Ontario excursionists arrived on No. one express at one o'clock Sunday morning, over one hundred citizens were on the platform, when the train came in.

Mr. Michael Chas. Bernard, eldest son of Mr. W. L. Bernard, barrister, has just arrived from England and will go into the practice of law in connection with his father in Calgary at once.

The Rev. Leonard Gartz arrived from Red Deer on Saturday afternoon. This morning he was at the C. P. R. station and met several gentlemen from the East who had been corresponding with him about coming here.

A HERALD reporter was told at the station by different gentlemen who arrived on the excursion, that the amount of baggage and lugging they were subjected to by and speculators and professional bootleggers along the line to prevent them coming to the Calgary where they were ticketed for was simply torturing.

The Ontario excursionists to the number of 80 arrived on No. one express this morning, and were soon distributed round amongst friends and the hotels. As fine a business looking lot of intelligent men probably never stepped off one train at Calgary before. The committee have been very busy showing our visitors round to-day, all of whom express themselves as well pleased with what they have seen so far. Many have driven into the country, but to-morrow will be the great driving out day.
